SCOTTDALE HIGH SCHOOL

Major Frank Murphy

Mr. Frank Murphy, our former Industrial Arts Instructor, has been an officer in the United States Army since February, 1941. A National Guardsman for years previous to the outbreak of the war, he was promoted after entering active service and advanced in rapid succession from lieutenant to captain to major. He is now attending Staff Officer School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Major Murphy stands high on the list of notables who are ex-faculty members of Scottsdale High School.

TO OUR MEN IN THE ARMED FORCES

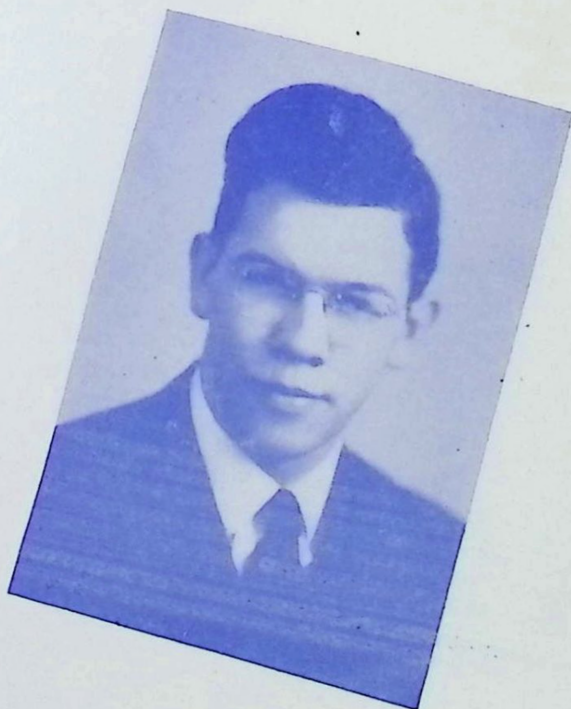

Lt. John Mendel Hirst

During the ten years which Dr. Hirst served on the faculty as science teacher and director of choral club, he was held in high esteem by his students. He held the degrees of B. S. from Bethany, M. S. in Zoology and Ph. D. in Biology from the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. Hirst entered the service of his country, receiving his lieutenant's commission in the United States Navy soon after the beginning of the 1942-43 school term. He is now stationed at Navy Pier, Chicago.

Corporal Walter Newcomer

Another of our favorite teachers who has gone into the service of his country is Walter Newcomer. He taught mathematics in the high school for eight years. At the beginning of the 1942 term he was appointed to the position of Principal of the Chestnut Street School, and served in that capacity until he reported for army service in November. At present he is stationed at Fort Jackson.

Mr. R. W. Keibler

Uncle Sam has taken another of our well-liked teachers in order that the American way of living may be preserved.

Mr. Walter Keibler came to Scottsdale in the fall of '42. He was born in Charleroi, Pa. and was graduated from Charleroi High. He attended California State Teachers' College for two years and Slippery Rock for two years where he received his B. S. degree. He taught ninth grade science and was assistant football and basketball coach before his induction into the U. S. Army.

During Mr. Keibler's short stay in Scottsdale he made many friends and was respected and admired by both students and fellow-teachers.

Youth Must Become The Builder

In the past, youth has been greatly criticized. "This generation is going to the dogs!" "How lazy and careless they are!" "Nothing but young wolves." But recently such remarks have not been so frequent. Why?

I'll tell you why. We are beginning to realize how much we depend upon our youth. From the far corners of the world come tales of bravery and endurance from our youth in battle, tales of heroism which are unsurpassed. Others are undergoing rigorous training in preparation for their contribution to the cause.

It is the youth of the nation who fight and win wars and it is the youth who must later pay the war debts. Youth must be prepared to take over the reins of government. Youth will have to shoulder the responsibility of carrying on industry, solving the problems of the post-war world.

The oldsters haven't been talking so much about our "degenerate" youth in recent months for when our youth was called upon, they were there and ready to do their part. These youth are fighting for us. We are depending upon them to preserve for us the four freedoms.

Administration

Board of Education

The Board of Education has encountered many difficulties keeping the schools running smoothly during war times. Not the least of those may be listed the problem of keeping faculty and personnel quotas filled, rationing, accelerated programs, and development of physical education activities.

In addition to performing the usual educational functions, schools have become rationing centers, casualty stations, night school headquarters, and air raid shelters. The Scottsdale School Board and the school administrators have attempted to keep education on an even keel through all this; they have struggled through priorities and government rulings to improve our heating and lighting systems.

Aeronautics and Spanish have been added to the curriculum; and the shop program has been expanded and at the time of this writing physical education and vocational guidance programs are in the initial stages.

The School Board members are: Albert Reynolds, president; Albert Schaffer, vice president; Eldin Daugherty, treasurer; and J. Frank Hardy, Frank Dickson, Russell Eicher, and Wendell Momyer.

Clinton M. Puff

Mr. Clinton M. Puff SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Mr. Puff has now completed his second year as superintendent of Scottdale schools. During this time he has had to face and solve many problems caused by war conditions.

Mr. Puff has won the respect and admiration of the teachers and students since he has been here, and we are all very proud to have him as superintendent of our schools.

Mr. Puff attended Maryville College, Tennessee, where he received his B. A. degree, and the University of Pittsburgh where he received his M. Ed. degree.

Previous to his election at Scottdale, Mr. Puff held positions in the schools of Pitcairn, Midland, Wells-ville, Monaco, and Dunbar.

We, the seniors, feel certain that because of Mr. Puff's influence and his excellent example we shall be better American citizens.

H. F. Stough

Mr. E. M. Byers PRINCIPAL

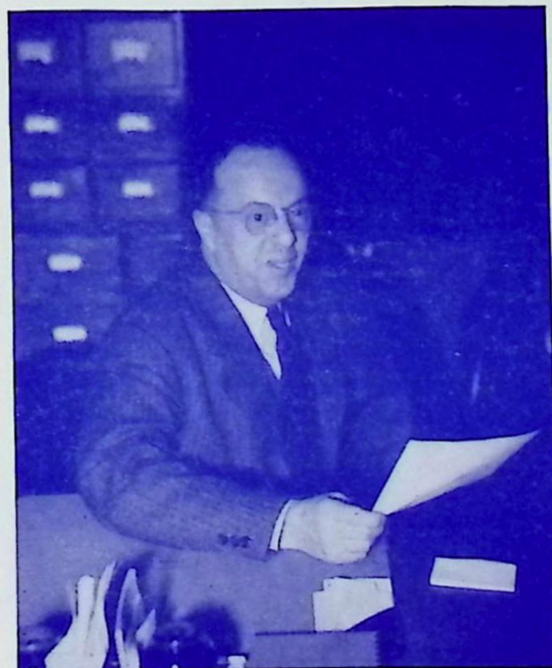

Mr. Byers has been connected with the Scottdale School System for the past nineteen years. He was a teacher for five years, and for the past fourteen years, we have been proud to have him as our principal.

Mr. Byers received his B. A. degree from Pennsylvania State College and his M. A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

He taught at Kittanning High School for two years and was supervisor of vocational education at Honeybrook Vocational School before coming to Scottdale.

Mr. Byers is never too busy to help students with their problems. Because of his kindness and sincerity, Mr. Byers has numerous friends both in school and out.

We, the seniors shall never forget how much Mr. Byers has had to do with making our school days happy days.

Senior Class History

In September, 1939, we who will receive our diplomas in April, 1943 entered Scottsdale High School as "greenies." During our first year some of our members joined the various clubs and organizations and we sponsored a freshman party.

When we returned to school as sophomores we were much better acquainted with the school program. Many more of us joined Tri-Hi-Y's, Choral Club, band, and some of the boys made their debut in the field of athletics.

Fall of 1941—upperclassmen at last! This year we really showed the school what we were made of. We presented the class play, "Young April," which was very successful. Soon afterward we were seen proudly displaying our rings. Finally, the prom, which was well attended by beautifully gowned misses and handsome young men. We shall long remember that night of soft lights and sweet music.

Now we are proud, dignified seniors. Very soon after entering our senior year we received our name cards. Next came our pictures, which proved satisfactory in most cases. In April we presented our play "Plane Crazy" under the direction of Miss Oma Stoner. We sponsored an assembly and organized a Victory Corps. A "speeding up" program was introduced because of the war emergency in order that we could graduate by April 30. All in all we seniors have had a very busy but happy year and our days in Scottsdale High will long be remembered.

Junior Class History

The class of '44 started the year in step with the times. The first activity was the election of officers: Kenneth Long, president; Charles Carlson, vice president; Marjorie Bosworth, secretary; and Kathryn Boyer, treasurer.

The second project of the year was that of sponsoring a dance during the Christmas holidays. Everything worked out as planned. The dance was held at the Scottdale Armory on December 29 with Jack Merlin and his orchestra furnishing the music. Patriotic colors were used in the decorations; a large American flag was placed above the bandstand, and the windows were draped with flags. All in all the dance was quite a success.

Class rings were ordered early this year and these were proudly displayed by the owners. The junior class play, "Professor, How Could You?" presented March 16 was a tremendous success.

And so it's goodbye to our junior year, We'll be back as dignified seniors, (we hope).

Sophomore Class History

Do you remember when we were the Freshmen of the High School. We weren't considered very important. Now that we are sophomores and many of us engaged in the activities of the High School, we feel like we are a part of it.

Some of us were elected to Choral Club, Tri-Hi-Y, Student Council and Sigma Gamma. At the beginning of the year we elected as president, Virgil Casini; vice president, Don Bradley; secretary, Tillie Seese; treasurer, Jackie Hartman.

In October Uncle Sam called one of our teachers, Lt. Hirst, to the service. Before he left, the class presented him with a gift.

At the end of October we were saddened by the death of a member of our class, Bill Kormornick, who will always be remembered by us as a true and loyal classmate.

In February came the brightest spot on our school calendar, the Valentine Day Party.

We are looking forward now to being upper classmen when school bells ring again next September.

SEVENTH

Across the Street

Scottsdale Junior High is represented by three hundred seventy students of the Chestnut Street school building. This group consists of five ninth grades, three eighth grades, and three seventh grade divisions. Many activities have been initiated by these groups.

Let's begin with the freshman class since it is this group which will enter senior high school next year. In the fall this group held regular parties at which many were taught to dance. These gatherings were under the direction of Mrs. Pryce and Mr. Keibler. We may be certain that this group will be on hand and prepared for their high school dances.

The Eighth Grade classes have been very active in their work with the Thrift Club. This same group originated the idea of a Thrift Club while in seventh grade and since then considerable progress has been made. The amount of money spent for war bonds and stamps is steadily increasing. Students, you're doing a grand job and we're all very proud of you.

A Student Letter Exchange has been started by the members of the seventh grade geography classes. Many of the students are now corresponding with children in Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Latin America, as well as Alaska and Canada.

A Thrift Club has also been organized by the seventh grade. They call it "The Young Americans." This class has decided to plant a Victory Garden this spring. Miss Adam's father is permitting them to cultivate his lot on Chestnut Street, if they keep the sidewalk in front of the lot free from ice and snow this winter.

Well Junior High! we know what kind of work you can do, so senior high is looking forward to a lot of this same kind of good work from you.

ACTIVITIES

After several years, Scottsdale High School has a newspaper of definite journalistic standards, and congratulations go to the staff that attained this goal. Under the trained guidance of Miss Counihan, our advisor, our weekly Scotties Revue staff meetings became regular classes at which we discussed, read, and wrote articles of various types.

Our first issue of Scotties Revue appeared on October 23, 1942. The Christmas issue contained the names of all graduates of Scottsdale High School since 1936 who are in the armed forces, and also gave credit to those students who are helping in the civilian defense program. During the year it has been possible for us to cooperate with the United States Government program of selling war bonds and stamps by placing cartoons, editorials, and pictures in each of our issues.

Altogether, the Scotties Revue has had a very profitable year, and has been a source of information to the students and the school.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y

The Alpha Tri-Hi-Y has completed another year. The officers were Kathryn Hough, president; Alice Fausold, vice president; Alice Gault, secretary; and Louise Yahner, treasurer. Our teacher sponsors were Miss Sherbondy and Mrs. Pryce, and Mrs. Clark was our mother sponsor.

We started our year with the usual party for prospective members. Nine girls were informally and formally initiated into our organization. This was followed by our annual banquet for the new members.

November was also an active month, with two dances at the Y. M. C. A. and a bake sale.

In December we entertained the Beta Tri-Hi-Y girls. Dancing in the gymnasium and the delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The first month of 1943 found us entertaining the football squad with a dinner. Mr. Puff, Mr. Byers and Mr. Swope also attended the banquet, which was our farewell to Mr. Lohr as well.

ACTIVITIES

 Treasurer Marilyn Keister
 Sponsors ... Miss Geyer, Miss Counihan, Mrs. Schrecengost

Beta opened the season in September with the usual membership campaign. The informal initiation lasted only a day as compared with the usual three to five days of previous years.

October began with formal initiation which consisted of a covered-dish supper followed by a candlelight service. The club had a guest speaker, Mrs. Harvey Harrison, who spoke on the subject of Red Cross work. The members had a Hallowe'en party and also sent Christmas boxes to service boys who were relatives of the members.

During November the club celebrated American Education Week by having a program based upon its origin and purposes. A Thanksgiving party was also planned. In answer to Mrs. Harrison's plea the preceding month, the girls helped the Red Cross by doing surgical dressings.

In December the Beta bought and decorated a Christmas tree for the school. When school holidays began, the tree was taken down and donated to the Y. M. C. A. The club sponsored a pre-holiday dance, which proved to be a great success.

January was a quiet month for the club. It began a course on religious arts using six religious pictures. In working to get points the girls read the Bibles in the home-rooms, and had a clean-speech campaign.

During February the club sponsored a Go-To-Church campaign. Two guest speakers, Miss Ruby Wissinger and Mrs. Charles Davies, gave interesting and profitable talks to the members. For the Alpha girls, the club planned and held a party.

A musical program was planned and presented in March. Bible study was started in another effort to gain points. A meeting featuring three book reviews finished the month's activities.

In May, under the supervision of new officers, the club held a Mother-Daughter Banquet celebrating Mother's Day. The surprise of the year proved to be a faculty tea. The year's activities were concluded with a Memorial Day program.

Gamma Tri-Hi-Y

The Gamma Tri-Hi-Y girls have completed another successful year under the sponsorship of Miss Hickernell, who has been our councillor ever since this club was organized.

We started our year by electing the following officers: Dorothy Johnson, president; Irene Claybrook, vice-president; Ida Smith, treasurer; and Thelma Teeter, secretary.

Our first party of the year was given for the new girls at which time the girls were acquainted with the purpose and aims of the organization.

On October 22, we were honored to have Miss Oma Stoner as our guest speaker at our covered dish supper.

On Thanksgiving, we attended church as a group. On December 17th we had our annual party for the little children.

During February and March we carried on our Bible and Red Cross projects.

Spring activities brought us to the close of school satisfied with having a good year under leadership of faithful officers and capable sponsorship.

ACTIVITIES

Hi-Y began its meetings in September, presided over by the following new officers: Claude Nist, president; Keith Hixson, vice president; Richard Campbell, secretary-treasurer. Our sponsors for the year were Mr. Hines, Dr. Silvis, and Mr. Swope.

Our first real project was launched in December when we sent Claude Nist and Albert Hemp as delegates to the Older Boys Conference in Erie, Pennsylvania. It proved to be very worthwhile, as many good ideas were brought back.

In January we held our formal initiation for the eight new members who were added to the club in November.

In February the Hi-Y helped with the Victory Book Campaign. Many of the Hi-Y members also enlisted in the Civilian Defense activities.

During the last of February and early part of March the Hi-Y completely remodeled and furnished their meeting room in the Y. M. C. A.

During the year a number of social functions, both dinners and dances, were sponsored by the Hi-Y.

Student Council

Another successful year is drawing to a close for the Student Council. It has been under the capable leadership of the following officers:

President	Claude Nist
Vice President	Dick Wood
Secretary-Treasurer	Tillie Seese
Faculty Advisor	Miss Alice Geyer

This year the Student Council was expanded to include two members from each home-room, the president and the vice-president, to help carry out the Council's plans.

As in previous years Student Council sponsored the publication of the Scotties Revue and other student activities. A calendar of school events and club activities posted by the Council on the main bulletin board helped in eliminating the duplication of activities by the school organizations.

The Christmas assembly given December 22, and sponsored by the association, was quite successful. On January 29, the group held a dance at the Y. M. C. A.

Another year ends for the Student Council but with no regrets, as the year has been very profitable for them as well as for the student-body.

ACTIVITIES

The Junior Red Cross was organized this year under the sponsorship of Miss Sherrick.

The result of the election of officers was as follows: president, Sallyann Rowe; vice president, Marilyn Keister; secretary, Laura Corkran; and treasurer, Lou Huntley.

During November the Red Cross Annual Roll Call was held in which $15.25 was collected in the high school.

The girls participated in various projects, some of which were making utility bags and library cards, and collecting jig-saw puzzles. These were sent to the men in the service. Books were also collected for the Victory Book Drive. A first aid class was organized for the benefit of the members and proved very interesting and instructive.

The scientifically-minded students of the high school who comprise the Science Club have completed a successful year under the leadership of Lou Huntley, Donald Hough, Carolyn Eicher, and Doris Overholt.

Science projects were selected by the members of the local club. Throughout the year at their meetings they reported on and discussed the developments in their projects and listened to reports of new scientific discoveries.

Choral Club

It has been a different year for the club members. We lost our director, Dr. J. Mendel Hirst, when he received a Navy commission but we gained Mrs. Eleanor Pryce as our new and capable director. We assembled on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of every week as a class.

Christmas time:—The school was bubbling over with holiday gaiety but down in the music room the Choral Club was rehearsing its Christmas cantata. On December 20, at the United Brethren Church, all the hours of hard work were repaid when the club presented the beautiful Christmas story in the cantata, "The Light Celestial."

Spring came and with it the annual presentation of a program at the Monday Musical Club. This was given March 8. Also with spring came the proud displaying of the Choral Club pins by the seniors.

Thus another year closed. The seniors leave with regret and with the hope that the club activities which have brought them so many happy experiences will continue and improve.

Scottie Band

Our band really went places this year.

The instrumental organization was greatly improved by the addition of a set of bells, a tenor saxophone, two French horns, and a string bass. New music made possible a more varied repertoire.

Increased experience in marching and drill formations and the snappiness of the blue and white uniforms made our band the pride of Scottsdale fans.

Appearing at every game except North Union, despite rain and snow, the Scottie band was received on the field with little less enthusiasm than the players.

In addition to its participation in football activities, the Scotties played for the Scout Jamboree held on the football field, marched in the Halloween parades in Scottsdale and Mount Pleasant, were on the program on Farmers' Night at the Armory, at the dedication of the service honor roll, and at an assembly at the Strand Theatre.

Seniors who lettered in band activities were: Lenore Davis, Lou Huntley, Kitty Hough, Nancy Rogers, Mary Jane Uber, Betty Shirer, Louise Waller, Martha Ansell, Nelda Cramer, Zelma Guest, Sid Guest, Jim Marth, Clarence Conners, and Lois Weaver.

ACTIVITIES

Senior Class Play

On April 6, 1943, at the Strand Theater, the Senior Class of Scottsdale High presented "Plane Crazy" written by Dorothy Rood Stewart.

The play deals with Jimmy Haleon (Bill Osniak) who wants to learn to fly, and starts his career by getting a job as a hangar boy. After losing his pants, and borrowing Putrid's (Jim Bokros), he arrives at Julie's (Esther Albanese) hamburger stand where he meets Muscles (Jim Marth), Peggy (Josephine Sorace), and Honey-chile (Gertrude Banazak). Many exciting events follow which end in Chip Burke (Ralph Brownfield), a flying instructor, trying to convince Mr. Haleon (Albert Hemp), that flying is no more dangerous than automobiles. Mr. Haleon finally gives in after a talk with his wife (Betty Baker). Anna (Irene O'Laughlin), Mrs. Petty (Nelda Cramer), and Miss Crump (Lou Huntley), all figure prominently throughout the play. The gang that hangs out at Julie's, includes: Anastasia Helinski, Mary Jane Uber, Frances Skiles, Cecilia Stahoviak, Nancy Rogers, Vickey Levay, and Earl Anger, Claude Nist, Arthur Baughman.

An excellent performance was given by the cast under the capable direction of Miss Oma Stoner..

ACTIVITIES

On March 16, 1943 an excellently selected cast under the able direction of Miss Pauline Sherbondy presented "Professor, How Could You" written by Anne Coulter Martens. Miss Greer Garson Bosworth and Mr. James Cagney Weaver delighted all present with their grand performance. Jack Oakie Shirer as Grandpa, Fay Bainter Rowe as Grandma, Kay Kyser Campbell as Boggins, Joan Davis George as Tootsie Bean, Ann Southern Rhodes as Valerie, Red Skelton Weaver as John, Marie Wilson Byers as Priscilla, and Lou Costello Spisso as the Butcher Boy were all great.

The alternates included Ruth Rogers, Marjorie Dick, Mary Laurie Byrne, Patricia Horn, and Bob Richard.

Recognition should also be given to the committees that helped make the play a success.

GRID IRON SEASON

At the beginning of the season the outlook for the Blue and White Squad was very gloomy because of the loss of many experienced players by graduation. Despite this fact the coaches, "Bill" Lohr and his very able assistant, "Walt" Kiebler, worked hard and finally molded a pretty fair squad out of available inexperienced material. The coaches deserve plenty of credit for the fact that the season ended favorably. A great deal could be said for the players' hard work and splendid cooperation.

SCOTTDALE—0

NORTH UNION—0

The opening of the '42 football season found the Scotties a very green squad with only two lettermen. Traveling to North Union, they battled to a scoreless tie against the heavier Red team. Several times they lacked the scoring punch in pay dirt.

SCOTTDALE—7

PERRY TOWNSHIP—0

Back home again the little-more-experienced Scotties took on the Perry Township aggression. They edged out the fighting Perry Eleven by a seven point margin but they still showed lack of coordination.

ATHLETIC

MOUNT PLEASANT—25

Playing their second game at home, the Scotties took on their first Class A opponent, Mount Pleasant, who was now rolling smoothly along. The Mounties romped over the less-experienced Scotties to the margin of three touchdowns.

SCOTTDALE—7

HURST—46

Smarting from the previous setback, the Scotties met the highly touted Scarlet Hurricane. Although dropping the game, it was evident that they were beginning to hit their stride.

SCOTTDALE—27

LEECHBURG—0

Still maintaining that stride the Scotties waded into the Leechburg eleven. With smooth working offense and improved defense, the Millers turned back the Leeches by a four-touchdown margin.

SCOTTDALE—6

CONNELLSVILLE—46

On the road again the Scotties clashed with the Cokers of Connelssville. One of their oldest rivals, the Cokers, a Class AA contender, outclassed the Scotties. With their power and reserve they ran through the fighting Milltown Eleven.

SCOTTDALE—19

DUNBAR TOWNSHIP—0

Still on the road the Scotties took on the Red and Black of Dunbar. Not showing the same coordination as in the game with the Leeches, nevertheless the Scotties handled themselves well enough to whip the fighting Dunbar Eleven.

SCOTTDALE—27

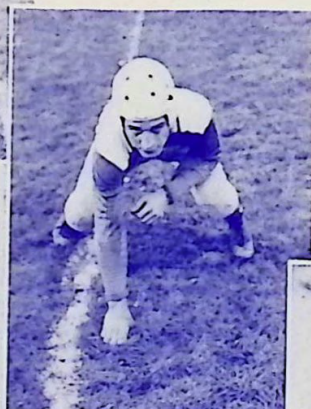

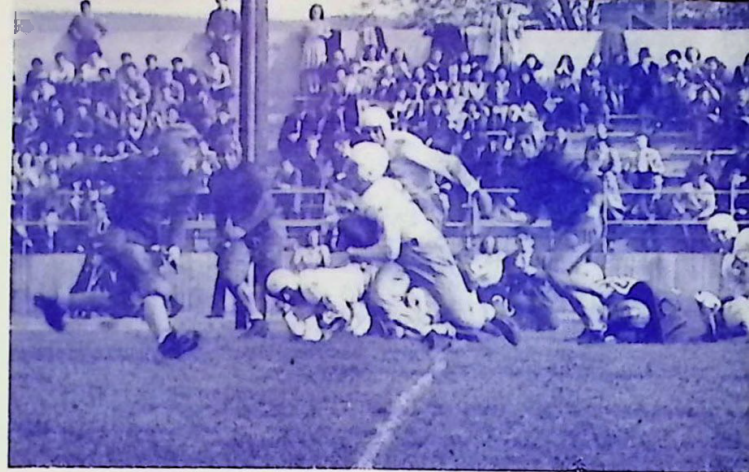

SOUTH UNION—0

The Scotties next did battle with South Union at home. From the very start the Scotties went to work, the offense and defense working to perfection. They turned South Union back to the tune of four touchdowns.

SCOTTDALE—19

EAST PITTSBURGH—0

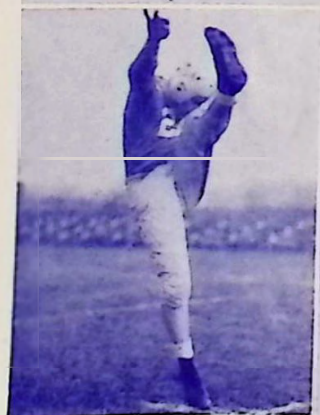

Dad's Night featured the closing game with the Shamrocks of East Pittsburgh. The Scotties were on their best behavior and though they were judged the underdogs before the kickoff, they soon took the measure of their opponents and went on to victory.

We Have Arrived

I, Martha Hunley, have arrived safely (I think) at my destination. I have (passed, graduated, or otherwise). This year was (swell, so-so, awful). It seems that I was neck-deep in work; I keep wondering how I got through it. Do you suppose I used a shovel? Well, anyway, I took 4 subjects. They were English, History, Biology, and Plane Geometry and Plane Geometry. My favorites were History and Plane Geometry. I had 3 study halls, 1 in which I talked all the time and 2 in which I tried (but not very hard) to work. For me this year (has, has not) passed very quickly. Maybe it was because we had (few, too many) vacations.

My assembly room 17 was always in an uproar. (Mr., Miss) Sherrick had a terrible time trying to keep the kids from laughing and talking.

This year my best friends have been Bernie, Claine, Mary H., and Cleanor Hough. I had the most fun with Shelene Catrell who sat next to me in study hall class. Cleanor Hough art class

I had loads of fun at the (basketball, football) games. I thought _____, _____, and _____ were swell players.

I think the class that I'll miss most was History because Mary Harrington sat behind me.

My favorite teachers ^{were} Mr. Hollibaugh + Miss Dick. I thought (he, she) ^{was} Stoner ^{was} swell. Boy! I just couldn't stand (Miss, Mr.) _____ with (his, her) silly jokes!

Oh, well.

And now as I write _____ at the end of this chapter of my life, I'm looking forward to my Junior year. Wish me luck.

Thomas and Prucy

Thomas, a soldier on leave, and Prucy (Prudence to you) decided to go for a boat ride. They were sailing along smoothly, their faces lit up with smiles, when suddenly the boy frowns. Prucy asks, "What is DeMattis?" "Oh we just hit a reef and now I can't Steir this boat straight." They gave up the ride and went back to shore.

When they got out of the boat, they decided to go to a movie. There they split their sides laughing at Mickey Mouse. After the show, Prucy said, "I have to Koch dinner. Let's stop at the store and get some eggs, tomatoes, a loaf of bread, and a can of Kern. Will you please be my Guest?"

"Swell! I'll help you," answered Thomas.

When they got home Prucy's little brother, Billy, was trying to Lynch the cat. "Oh! You naughty boy! Aren't you ashamed of yourself?" cried Prucy.

"Ah, Nist!" he shouted.

You won't receive any Merritt for such things. Now Ware did you Hyde my Clark bars?" asked his sister.

"In my little stomach! They tasted very good. Thank you."

Prucy was too angry to answer so she went out in the kitchen and started dinner.

Prucy's father, a Miner, came home and took a Shirer before dinner. He was Strickler than the rest of the family and would have whipped Billy for trying to hurt the cat, but the mother came home and stopped him.

"Look," she said to Billy, "I brought you a stuffed Hawk to play with."

"Gee! Thanks, Mother, but what am I ever going to do with it? I already have some Coons."

After they had eaten, the mother and father went out to see some friends. Thomas gave Billy a Coyne and said, "Now Marth up to bed."

They turned the radio on and danced awhile. What did they do the rest of the evening? Why they played gin rummy, of course! Suddenly Thomas jumped up so quickly he upset the card table. Did somebody say, "What table?"

"What time is it, Prucy, dear?"

"Why, it's only eleven o'clock."

"Only!" he shouted. "Good gosh! I have to be back to camp by midnight. I'll have to leave right now!" He gave Prucy a resounding kiss and then said, "So long for a while, and thanks for a wonderful time."

SCENE I

Time—1953.

Place—Inside John Forsythe's drug store, a Sunday afternoon.

Characters: Betty Baker, now Mrs. Earl Shank; Nancy Rogers, now Mrs. Harold Baker; Kitty Hough, now Mrs. Claude Nist; Frances Skiles, the waitress; Nelda Cramer, leading K.D.K.A. soloist; Ann Clark, an insurance agent; Louise Yahner, artist; Mary Jane Uber, secretary for Uber and Sons; and several youngsters.

Cramer: Do you remember Marty Ansell? I hear she is now in the front line of some kind of a chorus, and I also heard that Jean Brown is cheering for the Westinghouse girls' basketball team in which Theresa Bolosky, Betty Collins, and Clare Kurzeja are players.

Nist: What I get a kick out of is Betty Shirer working in a grocery store. Huntley and DeWalt kind of got shoved down a peg or two, both writing for the Courier as plain everyday reporters. But Leverton Hatfield, their boss, is swell.

Shank: Junior, you mustn't speak so disrespectfully of your teachers. Miss Kupczak is very nice and she isn't an old maid.

Skiles: There comes Charles Hodge and his band with Zelma Guest leading them. Oh, there are Louise Waller, Lois Weaver, and Gilbert Vinzani playing, too!

Uber: I hear there has been a new plan put into effect in the high school now. The publications staffs are given two periods a week on their regular schedule so they don't need to cut class. I bet Miss Stoner and Miss Loucks started the idea. I wish it would have been that way for us.

SCENE II

Time—Same.

Place—DeRose Cigar Shop.

Characters: Jim Marth, a painter; Clarence Conners, leader of his own orchestra; Earl Anger, just returned from the Marines; Al Hemp, playboy; Sid Guest, a tobacco salesman; Claude Nist, hard working Duraloy boss; and Glenn Lechlitter, Aeronautics instructor at the Osniak airport.

Marth: How's married life, Nist? I still think you should have selected a brunette such as that Merritt dame who is modeling silk hose for Montgomery Wards.

Nist: Your taste isn't so hot. When are you and Gertie, the librarian, going trotting up the aisle. Let me know and I'll buy some roses from the Bokros Flower Shoppe for her bridal bouquet. Ten years is an awful long time to keep a girl in tow.

Anger: I'm a confirmed bachelor. The Marines showed me too many beauties and too much fun to settle down now. Not even a model like Reeda Brant, Louise Conners, Dorothy Weideman, or Zella Williams could capture my heart now.

Hemp: Look at that hat across the street! Is there a dame under it? (whistle, whistle). Yes, it's Lucetta Anderson. That means Gloria Claraval has a new creation for sale. Her designing is really good, even if it is a little far-fetched.

Lechlitter: There goes Alice West into Fornataro Beauty Salon. Guess Russel is taking her to the dance at the club. If we expect to go, we better scram. So long, boys!

SCENE III

Time—Same.

Place—Finnerty Twins' Lunch Dive.

Characters: Josephine Sorace, a dime-a-dance girl; Anastasia Helinski, a bathing beauty; Esther Albanese, an eminent songstress; Mary Nicklow, a kindergarten teacher; and Doris Weaver, a health nurse.

Sorace: Say, I hear Helen Cutrell is doing real well at the Publishing House. Esther Gamber's marriage came as a surprise, didn't it? I bet Lenore Davis would have gone places on her clarinet had she not taken up sewing. Now she is Gloria's finest seamstress.

Helinski: Here comes Guptill. He's still working at the theatre, isn't he? Since John Wojciechowski took over the theatre, they have been showing some really good shows. Isn't it swell that Banasick, Graczyk, Greenawalt, Shulsky, Thomas, and Suttle all made their life's dream come true by finally becoming all-American stars.

Albanese: I guess Clara Parker, Lillian Scheaffer, Ruth Kuzar, and Rosemarie Coons are doing quite well with their Business School.

Helinski: Oh girls, did I tell you! I had a ride in De Stefino's airplane today. He keeps it at Bill Osniak's airport. Isn't it wonderful? Ralph Brownfield, Leonard Burton, Ray Myers, and Clarence Owens are all working together at Bill's. They have hostesses there too, Ann Connare, Ellen Gula, Donna Eckman, Irene O'Laughlin, and Thelma Slaughter. Eva Belle Welty is the navigator from the ground and Paul Corkran is the radio operator. Carl Parker is thinking about starting a chain of airplane tourist camps. He certainly is a business man.

Doris: The telephone operators, Betty Steir, Bernice Hyde, and Dorothy Johnson say that the numerous wireesses operated are interfering with their receiving and transmitting of calls.

Ann Finnerty: I was in the Scottsdale Hospital this morning to see a friend. You know Arthur Baughman and Edward Smolen designed the entire building. Earl VanOrmer, Stanley Kramarski, and Don Schaffer are staff doctors. Don't Carolyn Fabiszweski, Hazel Strickler, Virginai Shandorf, Cecilia Stoviak, Evelyn Gelosh, Theresa Wisniewski and Regina Zgorecki look cute in nurses' uniforms? They are very capable, too.

Mary: Did you hear about the plastic factory which may come to town? Bob Ware is to be manager and Ted Zozula and Gilbert DeMattis are to be foremen. Helen Yurkovsky, Theresa Zaffini, Marie Zucco, Evelyn Sterret, and Irene Hyclak were offered jobs as secretaries and I heard they have accepted.

SCENE IV

Time—Same.

Place—John Kramarski's Market.

(People come in to shop and gossip while they wait). Dorothy (Miner) and Mable (Miller) come in together for a few articles and they meet the two Szczygiel girls who are now teaching tap dancing in Everson.

Mable: Have you seen Betty Younkin since she started her drivers' school. I hear there is a wrecked car brought in to George Rizza and Casmir Koza's garage every day.

Dorothy: Betty Lynch took a lesson the other day. They had to use airplane gas so they diluted it and used a match to see if the tank was full. The first thing they knew, Bill Wise was putting them into the ambulance and taking them to the hospital. Granville Haith's drug-store was ruined by the explosion so he hired the Hawk and Snowden Detective Bureau to investigate and George Koch, the lawyer, to sue. It is surely one grand mix-up. It's a crime to let these crazy women drivers run loose. It's all right for me to drive, though. I'm careful.

SCENE V

Time—Same.

Place—The new auditorium.

(The curtain rises and the school principal enters).

Mr. Seese: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Tomorrow evening at this time, The Five C's are going to present a very entertaining program. These are all local girls and the program is to be for the benefit of the eyeglass fund so let us all come. Miss Connors and Miss Conyette will do the barrel roll dance. Miss Betty Coyne will do her famous tightrope walk from the balcony to the stage. Miss LaVerne Cieslak will play three instruments at one time and Miss Connors will sing.

But now for the evening's entertainment. "Professor How Could You," presented by the junior class of our high school. This play was given at the Strand Theatre by the junior class ten years ago but it is still good entertainment. It has been revised by Eleanor Skoneczny and is directed by Miss Mary Margaret Kiliany. Cur.ain.

(After the performance the superintendent, Mr. Holliday, makes the following announcement): All those persons desiring tickets for the Ice Follies, starring Miss Shirley Dillinger or the Metropolitan Musical Concert, starring Miss Nellie Titterington, please see my secretary, Miss Margaret Hayes, the High School secretary. Miss Anna Mae Ullery, or the following teachers: Miss Ida Petrarca, Miss Mary Prucy, or Mr. James Kelly. I thank you.

(On the way home from the auditorium, the people stopped at the tea-room of Grace Rollinson and Charlotte Ryan or went on down the street to Mary Ann Kiliany and Elsie Kern's Hot-Spot. Several people took cabs home. The cabs are owned by Wayne Weaver and driven by girls. Some of these drivers were: Casimira Legutka, Clara Mickey, Margaret Thomas, and Dorothy Waywood).

In Every City One Store Is Recognized As It's Pacemaker

Stores are like people! They have definite personalities! It is said that above all, Troutman's is "progressive", "modern". This store is not satisfied to rest on tradition. It makes mercantile history day by day, year by year, and in the making sets a new tempo for Connellsville. It is a recognized pacemaker!

Our Heartiest Congratulations to the Class of 1943
